

Little Red Riding Hood

Chapter I

This is a story about a dear little girl. Everybody who can see her loves her. But her grandmother loves her most of all. She is ready to give her everything she has got. One day she gives her a little riding hood of red velvet. The girl likes it so much that she doesn't want to wear anything else, that's why she is called "Little Red Riding Hood."

Activities

Task I. Find and circle the odd word:

1. blouse, skirt, apron, red
2. girl, mother, wolf, grandmother
3. love, like, wear, hood
4. little, girl, young, old

Task II. Look at the picture and answer the questions:

1. What's the girl's name?
2. How old is she?
3. What does she have on?
4. What does she like to wear?

Chapter II

4

One day her mother says to her: "Come, Little Red Riding Hood, here is a piece of cake and a bottle of wine in the basket. Take them to your grandmother. She is ill and she needs some help. Be quick! And when you are going, walk nicely and quietly. Do not run off the path. You may fall and break the bottle. And when you go into her room, don't forget to say, "Good morning!"

"Okay!" says Little Red Riding Hood to her mother and promises it.

Activities

Task I. Look at the picture and complete the sentences:

1. Her mother asks Little Red Riding Hood to take a basket to her ...

2. There is a piece of cake and a bottle of wine in the ...

3. The mother tells her to walk ...

4. She says not to run off the ...

Task II. Look at the picture again and describe it. Use the questions:

1. Who can you see in the picture?

2. What are they doing?

3. What is there in the basket?

4. Where are they?